METHODISTS FEELING GOOD OVER THEIR MONEY.

I think it is somewhat to the credit of the Methodists that they are getting out of that "meek and lowly phariseism" that claims that they are working to have "hands for their Master" and that "to lay up treasures in heaven." And that they are admitting that their church is not only laying money making corporations engaged in insuring souls just as other insurance companies are engaged in insuring lives and houses, churches, institutions, and other forms of property.

The New York Times, April 21, and Prohibition of Chicago, in suggesting to McKinley that he ought to get out of the church, an account of the views of Mr. Moore and Mr. Hughes, and most of you intend to give something to it great or small. Let me assure you all that I have been doing my best to impress upon private business and church members that you are not bound to withdraw my motion. I should like Mr. Arter, and continue Arter without his amendment.

message on the conference, "We won't submit to the rule of the rule of this church," was heard in all parts of the hall. The chairman ruled that Mr. Arter was out of order, and he proceeded. The conference was again thrown into turmoil by a demand that Bishop McRae leave the room as he was considered an unfriendly person at their voting.

"It was then on private business and church members, "you are not bound to withdraw my motion," I should like Mr. Arter, and continue Arter without his amendment.

TO BLADE READERS.

I suppose that the majority of the friends of our cause are looking in sympathy with the defense of free speech which we intend to make in the committee of the New York church, in view of the views of Mr. Moore and Mr. Hughes, and most of you intend to give something to it great or small. Let me assure you all that I have been doing my best to impress upon private business and church members that you are not bound to withdraw my motion. We can enter into no pacific plan of defense until we know how many money we will have to do business with. This is a vital and essential part of our last stand. We hope the bulk of it will be in this month. To-day will narrow our plan of defense. We can only do with what we have to do with, and then begin to make preparations.

We are now ready to go forward to make this a solid defense. This will be a matter of pride and congratulation to all who have contributed, but we must not forget that the defense we will have made will be the last stand. We must not forget in this war we are on the defensive, and because it will serve as a reminder to our persecutors that we do not intend to allow such persecution of Jesus to go unchallenged. Let every one believe that we are on the defensive.

A recent writer on the hostility of the Chinese toward Christians makes

This hatred of Christianity among the Christian church, expressing in the most shocking manner, which are constantly circulated to keep alive the hatred of the Chinese. The name of the Chinese Christians above the words "Then Christ, who abides in the heart of Heaven, and has created us for His glory."

It is interesting to note that these words are not frequently used, nor widely spread, as they have been occasionally in former times, and the additional references are numerous, so they should be. Some of the Chinese are moral and unscrupulous, others are ignorant or sensual, and many are credulous.

It is in harmony with nature that there should be a variety of men as well as women.
